

Dr. Vasanthi Mariadass (Srishti College of Art, Design and Technology)

Dr. Vasanthi Mariadass is the head of the Aesthetics and Critical Theory Program at Srishti College for Art, Design and Technology, Bangalore. She was a fellow at the Whitney Independent Study Program. Currently she is working on Harun Farocki, a Berlin based Artist and Filmmaker. Her interest is in Critical Theory and experimental visual essay films and her specialization was on the works of Jean-Luc Godard. Similarly Farocki's documentaries are visual essays among other things and he is significantly inspired by Godard and therefore they are of critical interest to her work.