

Tibetan & Himalayan Studies Lecture Series

HUMBOLDT-
UNIVERSITÄT
ZU BERLIN

Institute for Asian and African Studies
Central Asian Seminar

2 November 22, 6 pm CEST

David Andolfatto, Heidelberg Centre for Transcultural Studies

Maṅgal Bahudvāra Caitya. The archaeological excavation of a 19th Century Tashi Gomang Stūpa in Svayambhū, Nepal.

9 November 22, 6 pm CEST

Callum Pearce, independent researcher

Unwanted guests: five versions of one ghost story.

16 November 22, 6 pm CEST

Saskia Abrahms-Kavunenko, University of Copenhagen

The undeparted: plastics and undead waste in Mongolian Buddhism.

30 November 22, 6 pm CEST

Isabelle Henrion-Dourcy, Université Laval

Styling a modern Tibet: the vibrancy of Tibetan contemporary fashion observed online.

14 December 22, 6 pm CEST

Ayesha Fuentes, University of Cambridge

Material bodies, bodies of material and the study of human remains in Tibetan and Himalayan ritual objects.

11 January 23, 6 pm CEST

Yannick Laurent, University of Bern

Himalayan bronzes and epigraphy: from early collections to modern fakes.

25 January 23, 6 pm CEST

Lachlan Fleetwood, LMU Munich

The Himalaya as a scale for global histories of science, empire and environment.

8 February 23, 6 pm CEST

Christopher Bell, Stetson University

The Dalai Lama and the Nechung Oracle.

ONLINE ON ZOOM

Contact: diana.lange@hu-berlin.de

Registration:

<https://hu-berlin.zoom.us/meeting/register/u5Ekc-moqTMtHdMPq2Tv5pTJ06hGCv6JRasc>